

Andrew R. Lucca

October 24, 1987 - September 7, 2020

Andrew R. Lucca

Loving son of Richard and Dianne Lucca; cherished brother of Alex Lucca, proud uncle of Charlotte Lucca, devoted grandson of Dorothy Trunda, caring nephew and cousin to the Lucca and Trunda families, and loyal friend to many.

Big heart, kind and helpful to all, the nicest person you've ever met, warm personality, extremely funny, great sense of humor, creative mind, gifted guitarist, huge Pantera fan, avid wrestling follower. Words can't express how much Andrew – Andy – Drew will be missed.

To honor Andrew's life, the family is planning a dinner on October 24, Andrew's 33rd birthday.

The Lucca family will be mourning their loss privately. If you would like to leave a message of remembrance for the family, please do so here.

The family has created a Life Tributes page at MorizzoFuneralHome.com to share memories, photos and videos.

For further information please contact the Morizzo Funeral Home and Cremation Services at 847.752.6444.

“ Dearest Andy, this is your second heavenly Christmas and we missed so much having you with us in person, but know you're watching over us from heaven. We hope you had the honor of personally wishing Jesus Happy Birthday and thanking him and God for the gift of everlasting life. We included you in our prayers at our family dinner at Grandma Dorothy's house and really missed you at the table, but feel comforted, knowing you're with Grandpa Vince, Grandpa Joe, Grandma Fran and our other dear departed family members and friends.

We are taking very good care of Gwen - just the way you'd want us to -- and got her some new toys that she likes. Dad and I talked about his special Christmas gifts to you, like the maple syrup, lots of chocolate, and cat mugs. Special memories that we'll always cherish. We are thankful that we had 32 Christmases with you.

Andy, we know you're making a positive difference in heaven because you have the kindest soul and biggest heart of anyone we've ever known. May God bless you always.

We love you with all our hearts,

Mom, Dad, Alex and Gwen

“ Dearest Andy, today is your second heavenly birthday and we honored you with many very special memories, including stories about the morning you were born, 34 years ago. We love you and miss you so much and wish you were with us today to celebrate in person but we know you're surrounded by those who love you in heaven, especially God, Jesus, Grandma Fran, Grandpa Joe, and Grandpa Vince. We are thankful we had you in our lives for almost 33 years and cherish our time with you. Andy, you will be in our hearts always, our first born son with a heart of gold.
Love Always and Forever,
Mom, Dad, Alex and Gwen
P.S. We're taking very good care of your Gwen - You would approve!

“ Dearest Andy,

I can't believe it's been a year since you left us for heaven. Every day Dad, Alex and I think about you -- how much we love you and miss you with all our hearts. Gwen misses you so much - and we're taking very good care of her.

At your Memorial Tribute, so many special memories were shared about the positive impact you had on friends and family members who traveled from Arizona, California, Florida, Wisconsin and all over Illinois to honor you. Dad's game ball story was the favorite and really showed your genuine goodness when you gave him your grand award game ball in appreciation for his help with baseball.

And the photos in your memory slideshow remind us how fortunate we are to have had you in our lives.

We know you are continuing to share your gifts with others in heaven -- your kindness, big heart, warm personality and helpfulness to all. And we thank you for watching over us from above - our Guardian Angel.

Andy, you are in our hearts forever. God bless you always.

Love Always and Forever,

Mom, Dad, Alex and Gwen

“ Dearest Andy,

Happy Heavenly Easter - We hope you had the honor of personally thanking Jesus for his gift of everlasting life, and that you're with our loved ones in heaven for this blessed day.

We think about you and miss you every day, but special days like today are the toughest to get through because you're not here to share in our family traditions. But we're so thankful for the memories of Easter's past, and that we had you in our lives - our kind, loving son, brother, and dad to Gwen. Andy, you are in our hearts always -- and our love for you keeps growing with each passing day. We know you're watching over us from heaven and sending your love. God bless you always.

Love Always and Forever,

Mom, Dad. Alex and Gwen

“ To our Dearest Andy,

Christmas will never be the same. We deeply missed having you with us in person with Gwen at your side. No maple syrup but we got Gwen some toys which she enjoys. But we did include you spiritually in prayer, tribute and toast. For your first heavenly Christmas we hope you had the honor of personally wishing Jesus Happy Birthday and Merry Christmas and that you celebrated with our loved ones in heaven. Andy, we love you with all our hearts and we know that you are sending your love to us from heaven. God bless you always.

Love Always and Forever,

Mom, Dad, Alex and Gwen

“ My condolences to the Lucca family. I've known drew the past few years. He was not only a friend to me ,but like a second son. Not only did I get to see him almost every day., but he would call to talk to me., because he knew I would listen., and I would give him advice on things as much as I could. He always thanked me at the end of our long conversations. Drew was a very unique and special friend. I miss those phone calls so much. You will be missed drew ,and never forgotten. R.I.P

“ Happy Birthday Andy!!

We celebrated your birth this past Saturday at your grandmother's home - with a special dinner from Czech Plaza -we know how much you enjoyed their food (and dumplings). Memories and pictures were shared - you were such an adorable child! You have impacted so many lives during your time with us with your kind heart - we wish you peace in your new home.

Love,

Aunt Vicki, Uncle John and Jack

“ Dear Andy,

We just celebrated your birthday yesterday and you were there in spirit. We also went through all your pictures and shared wonderful memories of your life. You are a very special and caring person (even in heaven) and you will find both old and new friends going forward. We love you and miss you, and I know that you will always protect us from above. God bless you always! Love, Aunt Karen

“ To our Dearest Son Andy,

33 years ago today was such a happy and amazing day In Boston when we brought you into this world. And our adorable baby boy grew up to be the kindest man we know with a big heart, great sense of humor, and talented musician.

Andy, your birthday this year - today - is a different celebration. While we're in so much pain and miss you so much, we celebrated your birthday today and you as a wonderful amazing person and shared very special memories about how you've touched our lives forever. And while we celebrated on earth, you celebrated in heaven with Grandma Fran, Grandpa Joe, Grandpa Vince and other loved ones and hopefully also Dimebag Darrell and Eddie Van Halen.

You are in our hearts forever, Andy.

Love Always,

Mom and Dad

“ It's been quite a long time since I've spoken to Andy, I know we did try to reconnect after I moved to Milwaukee but unfortunately that never came to be. The way I'll always remember him is that mischievous little kid I met way back in 4th grade. Our sleepovers staying up way too late if ever going to bed playing the latest video game on the n64 or bingeing beavis and butthead. Back when our biggest concern was having a steady supply of warheads, pokemon cards and crazy bones. I'll never forget those trips to lasertag, the arcade or our yearly tradition of burning our school papers to signify another end of the year. Life has gotten a bit more complex since then, seems to have been even more so on his end. My love and thoughts go out to the Luccas. I know you've probably heard this a bunch, but if I can help please let me know

“ Dianne, Rick, Alex & family, Please accept our heartfelt condolences on the sudden loss of your beloved son. May the loving memories you hold in your heart bring you strength and courage in the days ahead. May he rest in peace. Our thoughts & prayers are with all of you. Debbie & Evaristo Gallegos & family

“ I'm broken. I don't know what to without to do without you. But I know you want me to not grieve and cherish the times with you. The greatest blood related brother on the planet. I miss you so much and you will be with me forever and so will I. I love you so much Andrew Richard Lucca. I can go on for hours talking about our fun times but you'd probably tell me to shut up I love you to the moon and back. Reach for the moon and if you fall short you'll be amongst the stars

“ I had an opportunity to see Andy spend time with his Grandmother Dorothy on a number of occasions. You could tell by the way that he cared for her that he was a kind and gentle soul. There is nothing more important in life.
May he rest in peace.

“ Dianne, Rick and Alex,
Chee and I send our most sincere and heartfelt sympathy. Where to start...from 1996 'til recent days our sons, Andy and Chris, shared a special friendship and in turn included both of our families. Our sons shared video games; WWF action figures; guitars; overnights; school, scout and band activities; trips to Yokohama and Korea Garden Restaurants; Sunday dinners at Grandma Dorothy's; hobbies with Grandpa Joe; spontaneous visits from younger brother Alex; Christmas Eves and all friends' get togethers. But more importantly, Andy and Chris shared a deep and abiding friendship that spanned throughout all the years and will be remembered forever. We wish you and your family peace and comfort.
Love, Suzanne and Chee

“ I was blessed enough to have spent them last month Drew as his roommate on our road to recovery. He was the most kind, loving, and caring person I have ever met. In such a short period of time he became a brother to me i told him things I never told anyone, loved hearing him play guitar whenever he was going through things. He was an amazing soul and man god has gained an angel. Andrews family if your reading this it would be an honor and privilege to celebrate dinner with him on his birthday with you guys as he even thought in a short period of time made such a big impact on my life if not I understand. My condolences.

“ We have special memories of the little boy that grew up on our street since he was a year old. He was always grateful for anything done for him and always a big warm smile on his face. Fond memories of trips to Great America and many celebrations for birthdays and holidays at eat others homes. We are so sorry for such an unexpected and premature tragic loss.
