“ Offering our deepest condolences during this difficult time.

“ Growing up on Natoma Avenue was one of the greatest things about my childhood- The DeMarco's Trocchios', Emmas' and Smith kids all grew up together on this street running from house to house pool to pool. Im still not sure anyone made a better meatball than Geri, but we were all fed well over the years! And as we grew up one by one the street got more quiet - but Tony was the one constant who would remain and help everyone as the years passed. Tony will forever be in my heart - in all of our hearts! He was kind, giving and sometimes a rebel but always loving. I will miss him squeezing my cheeks and giving me a kiss every time he saw me - well into adulthood!! Heaven gained a great angel on Thursday! RIP to the best Natoma neighbor and friend.
