Les Epps - December 15, 2024 at 01:24 PM

“ Looking back on the incredible years we spent together, I’m overwhelmed with gratitude for the countless memories we made. You were such an important part of my life, and these moments will stay with me forever:

Hanging out at Montrose Beach and taking spontaneous late-night trips to Chinatown, especially to Seven Treasures, for food and hours of sipping tea and talking. Spending countless days at Evolution, the import car garage, where we met lifelong friends and shared some of our best times. Watching over 100 movies at AMC Barrington. Camping under the stars in Wisconsin or driving to Detroit to spend Thanksgiving with your cousin.

You showed me the magic of celebrating holidays, which I never experienced growing up since I didn’t celebrate—and I’ll never forget how special you made them feel. I remember the terrible car accident we walked away from with just minor scratches. I’ll never forget watching you modify your cars, from the Nissan Sentra and the Honda Civic (I surprised you with a body kit for your birthday) to the Subaru WRX. You always let me highlight your hair or pluck your eyebrows; you trusted me with the little things, and I loved that about you.

You lived 45 miles away in Skokie, yet you never hesitated to drive back and forth to pick me up, always making me feel like I was worth every mile. We loved car shows, racetracks, late-night Denny’s runs, and just driving around listening to all types of music. You even got me into some anime, and I still love the movie Spirited Away.

Some of the best times were simple—playing pool at Golden Cue, glow-in-the-dark mini-golf at your job at Putting Edge, or petting puppies at pet stores just for fun. I’ll never forget dining on deep-dish pizza at Lou Malnati’s, jalapeño and pineapple pizza at Lucian’s house, or Italian beef and ice at Johnnie’s Beef.

I was there for so many milestones—graduating high school, touring DePaul University, and picking out your first-semester textbooks. We celebrated prom at The Signature Room on the 95th floor of the John Hancock, went to Chris’s wedding together, celebrated and danced the night away at your brother’s wedding, and stayed in a log cabin in Wisconsin with Lucian and his wife, laughing even as the rain poured down the entire time.

Your mom, Ana’s homemade meals, your dad, Vasile’s warm smile and calming presence, and all the time spent with your family— watching your parents design and build their dream home, stopping by your mom’s work at Clinique just to say hello, or playing with your cat Smoky—all felt like home to me.

Every moment with you was an adventure, even the smallest ones. You were my best friend. I’ll forever treasure these memories and the joy you brought into my life. Even as the years went by, we always found time to check in, share updates about our lives, exchange pictures of our children, and simply say hello. Thank you for everything. I am so honored to have known you. May you rest in peace, surrounded by the love of all those whose lives you touched so deeply.

With love,

Heather Quiroga

“ Adrian has been my student in iaido since 2022, and in that brief time he's been a good friend to myself and all those who've trained with him. His sincerity, good humor and respect have left an impression on all who've known him, and I will greatly miss sharing time with him. He has fought this affliction with optimism and courage, and I feel personally inspired by the way he faced the struggles in his life.

I wish his family peace in this sad time
