“ By Mary Elizabeth Frye

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.*

My thoughts are with you. Deborah Maietta

“ We met Alan 3 years ago when our office relocated to the same building and floor where he was employed. Alan was friendly and the most welcoming to us as new tenants and we enjoyed his smile and waves every time he passed our office. Alan had the ability to strike up a conversation with any member of our staff and he touched us all. We will remember him fondly. Our condolences...
