“ I remember your Mom as loving and caring. Most particularly from My trip to Chicago for Granpa's 80th birthday. I stayed with your folks for a couple of days .I got many days of exposure to Frank Sinatra. Your Dad and I collaborated on the meals because Auntie Alice refused to make what Uncle Rick wanted to eat. So he told me what he wanted and that was what i requested from your mom. Even so she one day made a full course meal and I was the only one there. I had figured that she had invited the rest of the family. I told her my mom would be mad at me for putting her to all the work, but she just laughed..

“ *We remember meeting Alice at Joe's 60th birthday party...what a wonderful lady! Alice was very busy that night playing the slot machines and winning!
Rest in Peace Alice
