

Mrs. Ana D. Rico of Schaumburg

January 30, 1928 - August 23, 2019

Ana D. Rico, age 91, a resident of Schaumburg, IL, passed away peacefully August 23, 2019 after battling with pancreatic cancer. Ana was born January 30, 1928 in Pinar del Río, Cuba to the late Dr. Joaquin Cabrera and Cira Docal.

Ana is survived by her beloved daughters, Ana, Carmen and Maria; three loving sons in laws, Jose (Alfredo), Jorge and Vince; and her eight adoring grandchildren, Luis, Rodrigo, Mauricio, Roxanna, Alfredo, Deliana, Alex and Andrea.

She was preceded in death by her first son in law Luis Reyes; parents, Joaquin and Cira; her three siblings; and her Husband, Jose Rico.

Shortly after meeting her husband in Cuba, Ana and Jose married after four months of dating. Together they had three beautiful daughters and lived in Camagüey until 1971, when the Rico's migrated to the United States to avoid communism. After three years in Chicago, Ana became a widow and was forced to take several jobs to support her three daughters. She worked tirelessly to provide for her family. Ana is the true definition of perseverance, love, kindness and selflessness.

Ana studied fashion in Cuba and had a passion for sewing, she enjoyed traveling, telenovelas, playing dominos and bingo, shopping with her daughters; but her favorite past time was spending time with her loved ones. Ana is the matriarch of the family and she leaves a legacy that will live on through all the lives she has touched. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

A visitation will be held on Monday, August 26, 2019 from 3:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. at Morizzo Funeral Home & Cremation Services, 2550 Hassell Rd, Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60169.

“ My sweet, strong, selfless Abuela. My abuela taught me to be independent, to not be afraid of anything, to feel beautiful in my own skin and to be confident. She instilled in me to love selflessly and to put into the world what I wanted out of it. She taught me that nothing comes easy but with love and family I could endure any storm. More importantly she loved me for me and I never doubted that. I love you Abuela, you’ve shaped me into the woman I am more than you’ll ever comprehend. I will make you proud everyday. Te quiero y te extraño tu Nanita ❤️

“ I was blessed to have Tia Ana in my life. She made my childhood special. Spending time in her house was one of my favorite things to do. I admired her work ethic, motivation, positive attitude and determination to get ahead in life regardless of any obstacles she faced. I'll never forget simple things she taught me, like washing my hands properly. Those are the little memories that will always stay with me. Rest In Peace my Tia.

“ All my life, even as a little girl, each time I saw Tia Ana she gave me a kiss, and then she held my hand and we looked at each other and just smiled. She would simply say “que linda tu eres.” I always felt so loved my my titi ❤️ ~ Elena
