“ I grew up in Glenbrook and Kim and I were friends since grade school. I spent many days over at the Bozelka house during my teenage years. I remember Andrea as a ball of energy, always bouncing around the house cooking, cleaning, joking, yelling about something, laughing and even dancing. She was like a second mother to me and I'm sure to many many others. She was there for me, giving me the advice I needed and didn't always want. She loved hard, especially her family. She welcomed everyone into her home. The Bozelka home was always filled with friends and laughter, I think people were drawn to their home because the love it exuded. I will miss Andrea something fierce, I will be missed being called "corn beef breath" which was a name I was given initially by Frank, Andrea's late husband, but stuck with me though Andrea. She was a special lady, I was blessed and lucky to call her my friend and second mom.
