

Andrew R. Lucca

October 24, 1987 - September 7, 2020

Andrew R. Lucca

Loving son of Richard and Dianne Lucca; cherished brother of Alex Lucca, proud uncle of Charlotte Lucca, devoted grandson of Dorothy Trunda, caring nephew and cousin to the Lucca and Trunda families, and loyal friend to many.

Big heart, kind and helpful to all, the nicest person you've ever met, warm personality, extremely funny, great sense of humor, creative mind, gifted guitarist, huge Pantera fan, avid wrestling follower. Words can't express how much Andrew – Andy – Drew will be missed.

To honor Andrew's life, the family is planning a dinner on October 24, Andrew's 33rd birthday.

The Lucca family will be mourning their loss privately. If you would like to leave a message of remembrance for the family, please do so here.

The family has created a Life Tributes page at MorizzoFuneralHome.com to share memories, photos and videos.

For further information please contact the Morizzo Funeral Home and Cremation Services at 847.752.6444.

“ Dearest Andy,

It's so hard to believe that this was your fifth heavenly Christmas. And it doesn't get any easier, but we focus on all the special memories from past Christmases when you were with us. Like your very first Christmas when we lived in Boston. Karen and Vicki flew in from Chicago to celebrate with us - and what a special Christmas it was! You wore your adorable black tuxedo with red bow tie, and we went to a Boston Church bell service with our neighbors. The bells played all the Christmas carols so beautifully and it truly was a meaningful experience. You behaved perfectly for a baby that was only 2 months old!

Another memorable Christmas when when your brother Alex was born, and Santa came one day early with all your presents. You were so excited, you asked "Mom can you please have a baby every Christmas?" These are just a few of the special Christmas celebrations we spent with you, making very special memories.

Now you have the privilege and honor of celebrating Jesus's birthday with Him and God in heaven -- a glorious celebration.

We think about you every day, and love you with all our hearts.

Merry Heavenly Christmas to our wonderful son, brother, and father to Gwen.

Love Always and Forever,

Mom, Dad, Alex, and Gwen

“ Dearest Andy,

Happy 37th Birthday to our beloved first-born son. Today October 24, 2024 is your 5th Heavenly Birthday, and we miss you more than ever.

Dad and I spent the day remembering all the very special times with you -- starting with your eventful; entrance into the world - a very unique experience involving Ivey escaping the car and running around the hospital parking lot while I was in major labor lying on the garage floor. Luckily, everything worked out ok and you were a very healthy and sweet baby boy. As the first male grandson in our families, you were showered with non-stop love and attention which you loved!

Other memories Dad and I talked about were your awesome sense of humor and your great skill in playing golf which you displayed at an early age.. We recently watched some home movies when you were about 10 years old and these talents were definitely evident! Of course, the "game ball" story came up as it always does - as one of the best examples of your amazing kindness and thoughtfulness.

Alex also shared some special memories about your allowing him in the video game room and teaching him how to play video games. He also cherishes all the Wrestlemania matches you attended together and the pay per views when you invited lots of friends and gave everyone a scorecard to guess the winning wrestlers. Alex also values and misses all the times you had heart-to-heart talks with him, giving him advice.

Other friends and family members reached out as well - sharing prayers and words of praise for you.

Andy, you are loved and missed so much -- and will always be remembered as a very kind, talented and funny guy always ready to help in any way. These memories will live forever in our hearts -- and we are so very glad we had you in our lives!

Love Always and Forever,

Mom, Dad. Alex and Gwen

P.S. Gwen aka Miss Kitty is doing great and enjoying some toys you bought her which I recently found - she's such a sweet girl!

“ Dearest Andy,

It's so hard to believe that you've been gone 4 years already, and we miss you more than ever. We think about you every single day and although the pain never goes away, we focus on all the special memories with you and are so thankful we had you in our lives for almost 33 years.

Today your remembrances included a toast all the way from Athens, Greece by Aunt Vicki, Uncle John, Aunt Nancy and Uncle Mark who are vacationing together in Greece . And Chris C. played Pantera in your honor and felt your presence. Karen and I had a special Memorial for you, and Christine shared some special memories, including your annual trips rollercoasting at Great America. Other family members and friends are remembering you privately.

One thing we all have in common: You will live in our hearts forever!

Love Always and Forever,

Mom, Dad, Alex & Gwen

“ Dearest Andy,

Today is your fourth Heavenly Christmas - and you are so dearly missed. Gwen, aka Miss Kitty, really enjoyed her gifts -- a blinking laser ball she can bat around like a hockey puck, a new laser pointer, and her very favorite which was a crunchy matt infused with catnip which she worked very hard to unwrap herself! She found the wrapped gift right away on the table, and started to claw at it to unwrap it! It was so cute, she is now unwrapping gifts like the dogs always did! You would have been laughing so hard with your hearty laugh - and I hope you were watching from heaven!

But most importantly, you have the privilege of wishing Jesus "Happy Birthday" personally in heaven. And wishing God "Merry Christmas" personally as well. And not to forget all our loved ones in heaven that you get to celebrate with, including Grandpa Vince, Grandpa Joe, Grandma Fran, other family members and friends, and Ives, Buddy and Sunny. Please tell them all that Dad, Alex and I love them and remember them always with the special times we all shared together.

Andy, we miss you the most and love you so much. We are so thankful we had nearly 33 years with you, and we will be forever grateful for the special memories we shared with you.

We think about you every single day and know that you are continuing to help God and Jesus by spreading your goodness and kindness to those who need it.

Love Always and Forever,

Dad, Mom, Alex and Gwen (aka Miss Kitty)

“ October 24, 2023

Dearest Andy,

Happy Heavenly Birthday to our beloved first-born son. Today you are 36 years old, and it's your 4th birthday in heaven. This morning Dad and I remembered the events of 36 years ago as if it were yesterday, with Ivey in the car as we rushed to get to the Boston hospital, only to have Ivey jump out of the car and run around the hospital parking lot. Luckily, I got inside the hospital quickly because you were on your way! Everything went very well, and we were so thrilled to welcome our new-born son into the world. You were very special from the beginning, almost instantly communicating with adorable verbal sounds, something the nurses had never heard before.

As you celebrate your heavenly birthday with family and friends also in heaven, please know how much you are loved and missed by all of us you left behind. Several family members and friends have reached out with special thoughts and memories, all with the same theme - that you are a one-of-a-kind person with a heart of gold. You will be cherished and remembered with deep love forever.

Your brother Alex reminded us of a very special memory when I was pregnant with him - that you wanted us to name him Phoenix for the Phoenix Suns. That was way before we ever vacationed in Arizona, where we would eventually all move. So again you were way ahead of us! Alex is watching the Phoenix Suns season opener tonight in your honor.

Your sweet Gwen continues to do very well, as we take very good care of her, also in your honor and because we love her very much.

Andy, take care of yourself in heaven. We are confident you are making a positive difference in heaven as you did on earth. .

*Love Always and Forever, Your Family --
Dad, Mom, Alex and Gwen*

“ September 7, 2023

Dearest Andy,

We sent this message to the friends and family members that honored you at your Memorial Dinner, and many have already responded back with cherished memories of special times with you.

*3 years ago today Andy left us for heaven, and it's hard to believe it's been that long. But we still remember all the special stories shared during his Memorial Dinner and your kindness and support during our time of need. It doesn't get easier, but we focus on the special memories and our gratitude that we had him in our lives. Heartfelt thanks to you as an important part of Andy's life!
Love, Dianne and Rick*

We also had a special memorial for you today with Alex, his girlfriend Nicole, Vicki and Karen -- We talked about you for an entire hour, sharing stories about our favorite memories of you. One theme came through - You have had a positive influence on every person who has come in contact with you -- because of your caring nature, big heart and kind soul. Alex also had some very funny stories about the two of you growing up in Oak Brook and Scottsdale. Above all, we agreed that you will live in our hearts forever and we are so thankful we had you in our lives.

“ Dearest Andy,

Another Christmas has passed and we miss you more than ever. Shopping in the stores I see gifts that you would like, that I would buy you or Dad would buy you (like special Maple Syrup flavors).

But the greatest gift we can give you now is to continue to take the very best care of your beloved Gwen, who Dad affectionately calls "Miss Kitty." Everything thing I do for Gwen, every decision I make, I think "What would Andy do? How would he handle this? "

The other gift we can give you is to keep you alive in our hearts, to remember all your goodness and kind deeds you did for others, and all the very special memories and fun times we had as a family. We have these memories forever and are so thankful we had you for almost 33 years

Now you are with God, Jesus, and our loved ones who are in heaven. You have the privilege and honor of personally wishing Jesus a Happy Birthday and celebrating his birth as the only true meaning of Christmas.

Andy, we know you're making a positive difference in heaven because you have the kindest soul and biggest heart of anyone we've ever known. May God bless you always.

We love you with all our hearts,

Mom, Dad, Alex and Gwen

“ Dearest Andy,

Today is your third heavenly birthday and many people reached out to honor you, including calling you a "truly unforgettable friend." Of course, Dad and I talked about the morning you were born -- I was 35 years old then, your age today. And it seems like just yesterday. We agreed that no one else has such a unique story! Karen remembered the special times you spent together, and we talked about all the kindness and helpfulness you showed others all your life. We truly believe you're continuing to help others in heaven. We think about you every single day and love you and miss you so much! We wish you were with us today to celebrate in person but we know you're surrounded by those who love you in heaven, especially God, Jesus, Grandma Fran, Grandpa Joe, and Grandpa Vince. We are thankful we had you in our lives for almost 33 years and cherish our time with you. Andy, you will be in our hearts always, our first born son with a heart of gold.

Dearest Andy,

Two years ago Sept. 7 you left us for heaven and it's still so hard to believe. Dad, Alex and I think about you every single day and we love and miss you so much. We shared special memories about you earlier tonight, and while we all feel the pain of missing you, we all agreed that we are so very fortunate to have had you in our lives. We will always cherish your kind and selfless acts and our special times together. We also agreed that you are the kindest person we have ever known. And Dad mentioned your great sense of humor which is definitely a Lucca trait.

I talked to several of your friends and family members today, and they think about you often and agree that you are a one-of-a-kind guy. As one of your best friends said, "Andy is missed every day, and there won't be another like him. I know that he's up there looking down wishing nothing but the best for all of us, he was (still is) a special guy." Perfectly said!

You will always be loved and remembered!

We love you with all our hearts,

Mom, Dad, Alex and Gwen (who we continue to take very good care of! )

“ Dearest Andy, this is your second heavenly Christmas and we missed so much having you with us in person, but know you're watching over us from heaven. We hope you had the honor of personally wishing Jesus Happy Birthday and thanking him and God for the gift of everlasting life. We included you in our prayers at our family dinner at Grandma Dorothy's house and really missed you at the table, but feel comforted, knowing you're with Grandpa Vince, Grandpa Joe, Grandma Fran and our other dear departed family members and friends.

We are taking very good care of Gwen - just the way you'd want us to -- and got her some new toys that she likes. Dad and I talked about his special Christmas gifts to you, like the maple syrup, lots of chocolate, and cat mugs. Special memories that we'll always cherish. We are thankful that we had 32 Christmases with you.

Andy, we know you're making a positive difference in heaven because you have the kindest soul and biggest heart of anyone we've ever known. May God bless you always.

Not only did I get to see him almost every day., but he would call to talk to me., because he knew I would listen., and I would give him advice on things as much as I could. He always thanked me at the end of our long conversations. Drew was a very unique and special friend. I miss those phone calls so much. You will be missed drew ,and never forgotten. R.I.P*

“ To our Dearest Son Andy,
33 years ago today was such a happy and amazing day In Boston when we brought you into this world. And our adorable baby boy grew up to be the kindest man we know with a big heart, great sense of humor, and talented musician.
Andy, your birthday this year - today - is a different celebration. While we're in so much pain and miss you so much, we celebrated your birthday today and you as a wonderful amazing person and shared very special memories about how you've touched our lives forever. And while we celebrated on earth, you celebrated in heaven with Grandma Fran, Grandpa Joe, Grandpa Vince and other loved ones and hopefully also Dimebag Darrell and Eddie Van Halen. You are in our hearts forever, Andy.

“ It's been quite a long time since I've spoken to Andy, I know we did try to reconnect after I moved to Milwaukee but unfortunately that never came to be. The way I'll always remember him is that mischievous little kid I met way back in 4th grade. Our sleepovers staying up way too late if ever going to bed playing the latest video game on the n64 or bingeing beavis and butthead. Back when our biggest concern was having a steady supply of warheads, pokemon cards and crazy bones. I'll never forget those trips to lasertag, the arcade or our yearly tradition of burning our school papers to signify another end of the year. Life has gotten a bit more complex since then, seems to have been even more so on his end. My love and thoughts go out to the Luccas. I know you've probably heard this a bunch, but if I can help please let me know

“ Dianne, Rick and Alex,
Chee and I send our most sincere and heartfelt sympathy. Where to start...from 1996 'til recent days our sons, Andy and Chris, shared a special friendship and in turn included both of our families. Our sons shared video games; WWF action figures; guitars; overnights; school, scout and band activities; trips to Yokohama and Korea Garden Restaurants; Sunday dinners at Grandma Dorothy's; hobbies with Grandpa Joe; spontaneous visits from younger brother Alex; Christmas Eves and all friends' get togethers. But more importantly, Andy and Chris shared a deep and abiding friendship that spanned throughout all the years and will be remembered forever.
We wish you and your family peace and comfort.

“ We have special memories of the little boy that grew up on our street since he was a year old. He was always grateful for anything done for him and always a big warm smile on his face. Fond memories of trips to Great America and many celebrations for birthdays and holidays at eat others homes. We are so sorry for such an unexpected and premature tragic loss.
