“ Nonna,
It still doesn't feel real. Rest in Peace, Nonna. Thank you for everything you did for our family. You watched me as a baby, never let me go hungry, raced over to Addison to pick me up whenever I wasn't feeling well and wanted to come home from school, and most importantly, taught me what it means to be a family man.

I'll miss all the laughs we had. I'll miss playing cards with you and your friends. I'll miss your undefeated focaccia bread. I'll miss you yelling at me to take my hat off at the table. I'll miss you asking me if I'm hungry every 5 minutes until I said yes and ate something. I'll miss walking you in and out of the house every time you came over. I'll miss you yelling at me to slow down whenever we drove somewhere together. It's going to be weird not having you here with us, but we'll be sure to make you proud.

I'm grateful to have made so many memories with you. I would do anything to be able to hangout with you one more day - sitting at your kitchen table talking, eating, watching the "Italian program" on TV, and enjoying life together.

I will remember all the good times forever. That's what it's all about. Until we meet again, Nonna. We love and miss you 🕊️ 🌹 ☐
