“ My Mom, who just passed, was close to Babe, for much of their lives. After my Dad's death, they went out for lunch once a month on the North side, or in Evanston. Babe was one of the kindest and most giving people that I have ever known. And she made a mean Martini. God bless her, and may she rest in peace.

“ Ann you will be missed by everyone at St.Alexius. The volunteers that spent time with you in the Day Surgery dept as well as the staff. You always had a smile and willingness to help. My prayers and thoughts are with your family. Barbara Appelhans
