“ My fondest memories of Zia Nina were in her house in Harwood Heights. While living in Montreal, we visited her a few times with my entire family. My last solo visit was over Easter weekend decades ago to see her, Uncle Joe and my cousins. I always remember that she was welcoming to everyone who visited her home. She made you feel like you belonged there.

In the last couple of years, we chatted more often on the phone. She had an amazing memory and always asked how my family and siblings were doing. She was also a very proud and loving grandmother who always boasted about what her grand children were up to and in the last couple of years this included her great grandkids as well. You could feel the love she had for everyone in her life. I cherish those times when we chatted, and she updated on me on the family goings-on in Chicago, Texas, and Nevada.

*Zia, I will always think of you and smile.
Love you Zia and I will miss our chats.*

“ I met Anna in Arizona but we lived maybe a mile apart in Chicago. She lived in Harwood Hts. & I lived in Chicago. We even shopped the same stores. When she was in Az. we went sight seeing together, had dinner together, shopping at Macy's, Dillard's, Kohl's and many more. Most of all this we did with our husband's. What we miss the most is playing Scopa. I also know she at peace & is with Joe & yes playing Scopa.
