“ There will always be a special place in my heart for Tony. It was great going to the same high school. I always felt pride when I cheered for him at our football games and the fondly remember the joy of t.p.ing his house for homecoming. I rejoice that he is free of pain and suffering and take comfort knowing he is with our precious Jesus. ❤️

“ We were very fortunate to spend time with Tony watching the boys high school football games and helping out at the dinners. He was a strong presence in so many lives by always giving of himself to be a great husband, father, coach, mentor. He left a footprint on everyone's hearts. We will never forget him. Wishing you all strength during these difficult times. There's never the right words to say. We are here for you.
