“ I would like to express my deepest condolences to the Onesto family. As my brother Jim stated, we lived across the street and have many fond memories. The homemade pizza and other delicious Italian dishes. I was privileged to have Mama Onesto as my English teacher in highschool. I will close with this message to the family. As I was growing up I had a hatred for pickles. The girls (not so much Tony) would always ask me to say the word pickle and wait for my response which was always the same and I believe it was Mimi that would say "Ha , he says it every time". Fond memories indeed , rest in peace Tony with love from Tennessee.

“ I haven't seen Tony since we graduated from Fenwick, but I have great memories of him. He was the epitome of a "good guy." I remember him as always upbeat, smiling, and friendly to everyone. Reading the comments, I'm glad to see that it looks like he never changed. He was always the kind of guy you were glad to be around, and he made you feel that way too. God bless you, Tony. “ Bob and I were very blessed to have Tony as our neighbor. We had many "Italian upbringing" conversations and he always asked how our family was. He will be missed by Bob and myself, and was such a joy to all of us living here, to have him as not only our neighbor, but our friend.

“ My wife Cathie had the pleasure living next door to Tony for five years. I will miss discussing our love for baseball with him. He proved a Sox fan can tolerate a Cubs fan! Cathie loved to cook for Tony. All our neighbors loved Tony. God bless Tony and the Onesto family. Phil and Cathie Sampogna

“ I was saddened to hear the passing of Tony. I have many fond memories of him at family gatherings as well as at the home I grew up at in Prairie View. There was a time when Tony would come by on weekends during the to late 1970s and early 1980s. Him and my parents (Bill and Alice Bernardo) would talk about current events, family connections and life. Being a young man at the time I did more listening then anything but what struck me about Tony was that he was such a good listener. My last conversation with him was at a memorial service for are cousin Nikki Carso (Cozzi). There was a large gathering and I was waiting in line (a long line). He spotted me and escorted me to the front reassuring me that "I was family". I will remember him as an intelligent, thoughtful and kind man who left us way to soon. God bless you Tony, may you rest in peace.

He had a special glint in his eyes when I talked with him, I read it as love of family ,proud heritage ,living in the present,and made me feel great about myself .A life well lived:)

Tony was a very kind and compassionate person. My favorite memory of him was when my father was ill and "Tony O" (as my father called him), brought Krispy Kreme donuts. He also brought the paper hats that the employees wore. There they were, the two of them, in their paper hats, eating donuts and talking over the world's problems. They never did fix any of those problems but they sure had some interesting solutions. We all loved his eggplant parm and I still make a "pan" every Christmas. Rest in peace cousin.

I grew up across the street from Tony and always considered him my best friend. After St. Giles and Fenwick, we drifted apart, as so often happens. I'll always remember his laughter, and I'll always cherish his friendship. Til we meet again, Buddy.
