“ My name is Sylvia Young and I was blessed to be able to meet and work with Araceli this school year. She was a calm and loving teacher. Always calling her students "mis ninos" She always came into work with a smile on her face and was a great colleague to bounce ideas off of. What I am going to miss the most is her welcoming smile and our conversations when we shared about our lives. She always mentioned how amazing her kids were and how proud she was. I will be praying for Lupe and Juan and all her family that they may find some peace knowing our Lord welcomed her home with open arms.
