“ I have 2 hero's, a male hero and a female hero. The male hero was my dad who I loved as much as you possibly can and meant everything to me. When he left me the only thing at the time that saved me was my puppy Frankie. And as much as I love my own mother your mom Barb was my female hero! She truly was the super glue of your family. She did everything! She took great care of your dad in every way, she cooked, cleaned, did the laundry, paid all the bills, took care of her kids and kept everything in order! And all this while working full time! I saw it and recognized it every time I came over. She was my other mom that I loved and respected every moment. I'm thankful to have had her in my life. I love her and will miss her dearly! Thanks Barb for making your home my home too! You will always have that special place in my heart and soul! So until I hopefully get to see you again someday have a good time with the old man Frank up in heaven! I love you!
