“ My memories of cousin Barbara include a weekend in Syracuse, Indiana when we were all enjoying the Sun and water on Uncle Bills boat. As we were out on the water cousin Barbara noticed a baby duck struggling alone on the water and had Uncle Bill get the boat where she could rescue it. Although I have not seen or been in touch with Barbara for many years, this is how I remember her love and respect for life. I am sure she will be missed by many loved ones, until we all meet in Eternity. God Bless, Cousin Wayne
