“ Barb was a dear friend of mine and she was so much more. She was my mentor and she was larger than life within the healthcare industry. Go to any network meeting and Barb was always there sharing her insight to the goings on of events or credentialing CEU's. Whenever asked, Barb shared her advise which was usually right.

I knew Barb more than just a colleague and friend, She was always so proud of her family but not in a bragging way. She would always inform me about her grandchildren and their wonderful accomplishments and was equally proud of her new great-grandson which she recently sent me a picture of him.

I too will miss Barb immensely, our dinners out, the movies we saw, and keeping up with the sales at Stein Mart.

I express my sincere condolences not only to her wonderful family but to all her friends who will miss her so much.

She would always tell me how much she enjoyed your dinners together!! I would see her face light up when she would say “I’m going to get dinner with my friend Gail!” Thanks for being such a amazing friend to my grandma, she will be missed tremendously 💕🙏😊

“ I lost my friend and business partner yesterday. Barbara Sheldon was very loyal and a resource to everyone she met. Barb loved telling and listening to stories- she knew everyone and everyone's business. She freely shared words of wisdom to those who needed guidance.

Caring, funny, honest, loyal and loved others deeply. She didn't really drink but would re gift the many bottles of wine she received from grateful families, physicians and attorneys she helped. Kitty and I were often the lucky recipient of this love. She loved her kids, grandchildren, great grandchild her cat, siblings and friends genuinely and treated us all with immense kindness and patience. So sorry to her family for this tremendous loss. Silver Connections and the senior services community that Barbara worked in will never be the same.

Mrs. Sheldon was a classy lady who was well-educated, well-dressed and one of my Girl Scout leaders. I spent years of my childhood Hanging out with Amie in B.G. and Mrs. Sheldon always made me feel welcome 😊 thank you. I'm thankful she was able to help my Dad prior to her passing 🙏 Deepest Sympathy to my dear friend Amie and her family & Larry.
