“ Ben worked at Mai and I hired him. He was always very polite, and I loved his humor. He will be missed by all that knew him. Prayers to your family. Just know that he is not in pain any more, I know that nothing I am going to say is going to make you feel better. Remember him often and talk about him, keep his memory alive.

“ This is a time to celebrate life and not to drown in sorrow, Ben would want it that way! Ben probably thinks this is another one of his adventures during our marriage we had lived a lot of life and been on a lot of adventures! Ben was very loving, kind, spontaneous and of course adventurous! Ben now you can be at peace and you will always have a special place in my heart that will stay full! may you always have eternal life! until we meet again! I send my condolences to the family.

“ Hugs and prayers to Ben's entire family. The past 24 years have been up and down in my friendship with Ben. I would not be who i am without the experience and would not trade it for the world. He always left a lasting impression. He was one of a kind and I will never have anyone else like him in my life. I will no longer have the adventures he created. I will greatly miss his spontaneous fun, the way he could get super excited about things, his deep brooding thoughts, and his insane musical talent. I can't believe he won't be popping up here and there anymore. My heart is broken as he left this earth too soon. I pray he has peace now. ?

“ I just met you this past 4th of July... and we spent maybe 12 hours hanging out over a three-day period with my friend Brandy. You were so real and made me laugh and think so deeply about things in life!! You only spent about two hours with my children (two days before you passed) ... and they just thought you were the Best!! They had so much fun ... laughing and being goofy with you ... :) They barely even met you, like me, and just know that we're definitely going to miss you!! Brandy Honey, I feel bad that my childrens' dad bailed on them this past weekend ... I was supposed to be with you guys to celebrate your Birthdays!! Not sure if the outcome would have been any different... but just know that we send you our Love, Prayers and Hugs ... to you, and Ben's family!! Rest in Peace, 'Sledge' !!!! ~Rhoda and her Littles
