“ I grew up in Urbandale Iowa next to the Beryl and family. Beryl and I shared the same birthday I thought that was the coolest thing as a kid! I remember her English accent and I thought I was living next to a celebrity. Many fun times hanging out with Jean and Mark. Sleep overs parties and running back and forth between our homes! Melanie drive was fabulous street to grow up on and Beryl made it even more special! I remember going to Yonkers with Jean and her. Beryl was always a fancy dresser as her job was at Yonkers. I remember think that's where I want to work so I could look as good as her! I remember her talking about getting up early to watch when princess Diana and Prince Charles got married she told me how early she got up to watch the ceremony and talked about the country. She always had a smile and love to share with all the kids in the neighborhood! Happy she was able to spend her time with her family and children. Heaven welcomed her home. Her presence is lost on earth her love joy and kindness lives on. Prayers to the family.
