“ Camilla and I went to summer camp together one year and became close, sharing some days together after that summer. We shared a mutual taste in music. She loved Terrence Trent Darby, and she gave me a cassette of Bon Jovi's Slippery When Wet album. I still have it, and there are still songs that trigger her memory, like tonight. I wish I had gotten to have her as an adult childhood friend. She is still missed.

Camilla and I met over music too.. winded up in the same high school-took turns spending night at each other's homes .. she was to me my best friend. She was popular.. super smart and very outspoken. She was a great friend by disagreeing with me when she felt I needed to hear it. Chapparita .. LOL .. I loved her so much losing her shook my world. I still struggle with her lose.. I remember waiting for her that morning so damn clear it hurts.. loved and truly missed.
