“ I was very saddened by the news of Carlos' passing. Carlos was a person everyone relied on at Conant. Whenever I needed something something fixed, arranged, cleaned, it was done ahead of rime. If I had an emergency, Carlos would save the day. If I needed to hear a good joke, Carlos was the guy. He was an integral part of why Conant was such a great place to work. Carlos will be missed greatly by the many people he touched.

“ Carlos was a wonderful member of the Conant Cougar Family. He always had a smile on his face and a kind word. If you ever needed anything, Carlos would take care of it. He was a kind, gentle soul, loved his family and friends, and we all loved him.

“ Carlos was one of those unsung, friendly, hardworking, behind-the-scenes individuals who really kept Conant High School running smoothly. Anytime the English Department needed something done, Carlos was the man. Happily and energetically he could get things done for us without my writing work orders. But more importantly, conversations with Carlos about family, just everyday happenings, and, yes, even work issues made days so much better. What a calming influence he was! May Carlos Blanco rest in peace in God's hands. Lee Mulcrone

“ Carlos siempre nos visitó en la clase de español inspirando a los muchachos a seguir aprendiendo y practicando su español. Era una persona graciosa y amable. ojala que su familia siga su ejemplo y que los buenos recuerdos los acompañen durante este tiempo tan duro. Les deseamos lo mejor y mejores días

“ I will miss my dear friend, Carlos. Many a morning he would visit the English Office and catch up with members of the department, share information about his his family with happiness and pride, tell us about a religious Hispanic program he found on line, and finally check to see if there were any treats for him in the conference room....We shared a common birthday, and it was fun bantering about who was younger or better looking...I will miss you, my friend....May heaven offer you free from pain, endless bike rides, and beautiful jogging paths.

“ Carlos always had a funny story to share and a smile for everyone. In all the years we worked together I never saw him in a bad mood. He was amazing at helping Student Council do some of the most impossible things... He was truly one of a kind and will be missed. We wish the best for his family and will have him and them in our prayers. Shirley Putman
