“ My heartfelt condolences to the Panico family. May you find strength, hope and comfort in the Lord during this time of sorrow and grief.

We will long remember Dad fondly for his sweetness, kindness, his pleasant demeanor and for a man his age, his sound mind. He was blessed with a family who loved him dearly and he lived his life to the fullest. We got to know Dad through Angie, we are 13 of Angie's High School classmates who kept in touch via social media, and whenever Angie is able to join our group chat, we would have the chance to say "hello" to Dad and talk with him. I think what we will miss mostly about Dad is the sound of his voice singing love songs to us. Those were precious moments. What a gracious gentleman Dad was!

We have prayed for Dad and for his health, but when it was time, the Lord called Him home. We were deeply saddened upon learning of his passing, but for those who believe and trust in the Lord, for those whom the Lord has called according to His good purpose, this is our hope - that there is a Resurrection, that someday, we will be with our Father in heaven and with our loved ones in Christ forever.
