“ I just met Carol this year. I was admitted to Alden Popular creek this year. Care and I hit it off as soon as I was moved into the room with her. She was this amazing women, I thought the world of her, she welcomed me with open arms. I learned i was about 3 weeks older than her. We had an amazing relationship almost like mother and daughter. The whole family is a great family, I felt like I was part of the family. Carol started to get sicker, she was admitted to the hospital, I missed her I was glad when she got out. This last time she was gone for about 17 days I missed her so much I thought I could hear her in her bed. I kept asking about her but never got an answer. I finally got an answer from one of the CNA's telling me she had been dismissed from the hospital and put on the first floor I was really happy that she was coming home, I got a new room mate and she is not like Carol. I will always love and miss Carol. I am sure we could have become BFF. Rest in peach my friend I hate to see you go, God has a better place for you. Love Elizabeth ❤️
