“ *Neil,
My heart and prayers go out to you and yours during this trying time. It was always wonderful to see mom when she'd come in, and she was always pleasant to be with. And even though she won't physically be there, you're always welcome to come by!*

Jim Beck (Crossroads Sound tech) - June 27, 2014 at 11:25 PM

“ My sincere condolences to the wonderful family Carol left behind. She obviously touched many lives, just like her sister Lynn does, who is a friend of mine. I bet Carol is greeting friends in heaven right now. Much love to all of you from Texas.

“ I’m so glad that I had the opportunity to talk with Carol briefly at the alumni banquet. Carol and Sue, you two were a breath of fresh air when you moved to Roberts-Thawville. I’m glad that you sisters had the opportunity to take the Route ’66 trip. Sisters are very special people in our lives. I’m so sorry for your loss.

“ What a sad, sad thing to suddenly lose my old friend from high school days. Carol was one of those positive persons who also brought a smile to my face. I feel so sad losing such a dear friend, but feel so happy and blessed to have known her and had her as my friend for many years. My sincere sympathy to Neil, Sue, Lynn, Greg, and all her relatives, and others she left behind. Thank You, Carol, for being such a special part of my life.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Carol’s family during this difficult time. Carol was a genuine, warm-hearted person who seemed to make a positive impact on everyone she met. My evenings will not be the same without her smile and conversation to end the work day. I have faith that Carol’s closest friends and family will be able to take comfort in what must be many positive memories they have of time spent with her. She will be greatly missed.

“ Carol is a wonderful person. I will miss her positive attitude and cheery spirit. Speaking with Carol was a great way to finish a day of work (she was the night guard in our building). Leaving the building will never be the same now that she's gone. Condolences to the family. We lost a wonderful soul.
