“ My heart is heavy as I write this and words cannot even begin to express my sorrow. Char was a blessing to me. She was always caring and loving. She always made us feel special and welcome in her life. I loved her like my mom and she meant the world to me. We were privileged to have her in our lives. I will miss her immensely.

Love, Effie

“ Char's family, please accept our condolences. I remember going to several outings with my mom (Joanne) and your family over the years. I know we always had a good time and the loss of Char has hit my mom hard. We will see you tomorrow at the services. Find peace and comfort in knowing Char is out of pain and with her beloved son once again.
