“ I'll never forget at Aunt Dee's wake I helped Uncle walk back to his seat. When I gave him my arm to grab on to he said "Where are we going?" I replied with, "...to get a drink, Uncle." His reply, "Thank God, I need one like hell." That was my Uncle Chester. A quiet observer on the surface with a devilish and cheeky sense of humor. His funniest lines always placed at the best possible moment. It's no wonder he swept Auntie off of her feet (no sweeping pun intended- Cha Cha Clean). Our family will have a big part missing from every holiday and special event. The comfort lies within knowing he's with Auntie. We all know that he loved us, but didn't care to stick around too long without his sweetheart. The same way he never cared to move to the suburbs! So this Manhattan is for you Uncle Chester. A great man that served his country and his family. He wouldn't want tears shed on account of his wonderful life. Love you and miss you dearly.

“ Chester was amazing. Incredibly kind, but also a very blunt person. He'd tell you his honest opinion, or deliver the truth as he saw it. I was always excited to see him, and talk with him whenever possible. He was also one of the funniest people in our family.

It's frustrating me that I can't seem to find more photos of him and Aunt Dee, but now I wonder if I'm just remembering images that they made in real life that were branded into my brain. He and she had that kind of impact on the people around them, and thus will be sorely missed, and forever loved.

“ Uncle Chester, heaven is not ready for the laughs you will bring, but rest assured the entire place is clean thanks to your loving wife who is waiting for you with open arms and a sandwich. Thank you for the memories and a lifetime of smiles.
