

Mr. Chris Gregory Horeth

July 16, 1982 - February 28, 2025

Mr. Chris Gregory Horeth, it is with great sadness we announce the passing of Christopher (Chris) Gregory Horeth. Born on July 16, 1982 in Rochester, NY to parents Gregory and Diane Clark Horeth, Chris passed away peacefully in the comfort of his home surrounded by loved ones on February 28, 2025.

Chris was an incredibly hard working and intelligent man, and he had many accomplishments in which to be proud of in both his personal and professional life. Chris graduated with honors from Wheaton North high school and went on to continue his education at DePaul University in Chicago where he graduated with a bachelor's in chemistry. He later went on to earn both his masters in finance and his M.B.A. through DePaul University as well.

Chris was a beloved colleague of Hyatt Hotels Corporation, working in various finance leadership roles, the latest being Vice President-Finance of the Americas. Chris exuded passion in his work, showing unwavering dedication to his colleagues who considered him a trusted mentor and a friend. Chris will be remembered for his exceptional leadership, willingness to help others, and ability to navigate through change with ease and clarity. He will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege to work with him.

During his lifetime Chris had an immense passion for the arts and travelling. Chris was fortunate enough to be able to travel to 6 out of the 7 continents and he loved traveling so much that his friends and family often joked that it was difficult to keep track of him. Chris was also a very talented musician and loved all things music. His love for music started at a young age when he played trumpet, but Chris could pick up almost any instrument you put in his hands and learn it with ease. Chris was able to enjoy musical theater all over the world, as well as in the city he lived in and loved, Chicago.

Chris was often described as unapologetically himself, someone who was very humble, but not afraid to brag. He was an incredibly loyal and loving person to his family and friends, characteristics only rivaled by his wicked sense of humor. Chris had a knack for making and delivering the perfect sarcastic jokes and could genuinely fill a room with laughter. He took joy in making others laugh until the very end. While his time with us may have been cut short, Chris always acknowledged that he lived a very fulfilling life with no regrets and he lives on through his loved ones.

Chris is survived by his parents, Gregory and Diane Horeth, brother Brad (Breanna) Horeth, sister Ashlyn (Eric) Horeth Scanlan and his nephew and niece Kellan and Adalyn Horeth.

Memorial visitation will be held on Sunday, March 9, 2025 at Morizzo Funeral Home and Cremation Services, 2550 West Hassell Road, (Northeast corner of Barrington Road), Hoffman Estates, IL 60169 from 11:00 A.M. till 2:00 P.M.

“ I only just found about about Chris's passing today and am incredibly saddened. Chris was friend and a wonderful coworker. He's easily one of the smartest people I ever met and I knew I could go to him for anything I needed an answer for. He was incredibly hard-working and a blessing to those around him. He was also very personable and I enjoyed hanging out with him after work hearing about his many funny stories from his younger days. He liked wine not beer and that's the only bad thing I could ever say about the guy, lol. Rest in peace Chris, see you on the other side my friend.

“ I worked with Chris for many years at Hyatt with him in various roles with increasing responsibilities. He was always sought after for help because he was so good at his job. The joy he felt from his work was evident. He was so collaborative and fun to work with. I will miss him. Rest in peace Chris. My condolences to his family. Karrie Dowd

“ I had the privilege of knowing Chris for the past eight years while working at Hyatt. When I first started at the company, Chris kindly taught me hospitality industry lingo and certain accounting topics to make me feel more comfortable in my role – and I wasn’t on his team! He saw I needed help and proactively jumped in with ease to bring me up to speed. Over the years, Chris and I partnered on a variety of volunteer initiatives at Hyatt that coincidentally also related to colleague development. Chris truly cared about his colleagues and the professional growth of the finance organization. I will miss him and always remember his passion for his work, care for others, and uncanny ability to bring a laugh to every conversation.

“ Chris started working part time for us when he was finishing High School. He filled printed music orders accurately and quickly. Our assistant Manager called him our life saver. He was so much help to us meeting our shipping goal of orders placed by 4:00 pm sent out same day. I am so deeply sad and shocked to learn of him passing away. Bill Philpott, former Manager of J.W. “ I had the privilege of working with Chris for the past 12 years. Hard to put into words how much Chris meant to me and our entire Hyatt family. He leaves a lasting legacy through his work, leadership and his commitment to caring for others. His exceptional leadership, ability to navigate change with clarity and willingness to lend a helping hand whether for a business challenge or simply to listen made him both a trusted partner and a dear friend. He will be so missed and never forgotten.

“ Our family knew Chris for many years as our daughter Christina and Chris were classmates at Wheaton North high school. He was a wonderful, happy, loving, generous, funny young man. He also accompanied us our family on a beach vacation one summer he spent a lot of time at our home with the friends and the different clubs and organization. That they were all involved in. . He and Christina were best friends. It surely was an honor and a privilege to have had Christopher in our lives for as much as we did throughout high school years and also to meet his wonderful parents and his sister and brother.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the entire family. Christopher will be deeply missed by so many but a part of him lives on through wonderful memories

“ Although we did not know Chris personally, we know his parents, our dear and close friends, Greg and Diane. Genesis 1:27 says, “So God created man in his own image”. As we read Chris’ obituary, we reflected on those words of our Lord and how Chris, from the description of it, lived his life “in God’s image”.

Ever since our great friendship began with Greg and Diane, it was abundantly clear how much their children and grandchildren mean to them and the love they have for them. Their dedication in caring for their son Chris, throughout the entirety of his battle with cancer, is testament to that love and devotion.

Jesus said, “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give you.” John 14:27. This is our prayer for Chris, Greg and Diane, Brad and Ashlyn and their families.

“ Dear Greg, Diane, Ashlyn and Bradley---We are so deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Chris. Our memories of your wonderful son and brother during his childhood in Miami will never be forgotten. Many soccer games, sleep overs and family get togethers. Chris and our departed son John were such good friends. He was a great guy way back then and his many accomplishments in his adult life are most impressive and not surprising. Our hearts go out to you and all of his loved ones and friends during this time of great sorrow. Please accept our condolences. John and Jane Hughes

“ I have so many great memories of Chris teasing me in the office about doing HR math or us having fun at NYC Pride or the HRC Gala. He taught me how to read my forecast and was the first person that I would call when I had an idea but just wasn't sure how to bring it to life and not get into trouble. We affectionately nicknamed him VP and we were so fortunate to call him a friend. May his family and those who loved him find comfort in knowing how deeply he was admired and loved by all who had the privilege of knowing him.
