Constance is survived by her nephew Anthony(Sara) Pascucci of McHenry, Illinois and her niece Lorraine Pascucci of Eu Claire, Wisconsin. She was the cherished great aunt of Elizabeth and Audrey Pascucci.

Constance graduated from Loyola University in 1969 after spending a year of study in Rome [John Felice Rome Center, 1967-68]. A dedicated believer in education, Constance was an instructor with the Chicago Teachers Union, teaching junior high students for over 40 years. She was the recipient of two master's degrees, and the twice president of the Loyola Fraternity of PHD Teaching Candidates. experience back to her students. She was fluent in Italian and several ancient languages, including hieroglyphics and Aramaic.
