“ My sincerest condolences to Janice and the entire family of Craig. I have known Craig since our days at SIU. I have always known Craig to be a gentleman of the highest order, sincere and genuine in his interactions with others. Besides his calm demeanor and polite manner, he had one of the most beautiful golf swings I've ever seen with any and all golfers with whom I've played. He was a really good friend and I hope he thought the same of me. I will really miss his friendship. The world has lost a really good guy.

Never a complaint, never a cross word. We pledged Theta Xi together and he was always quiet yet strong, calm yet influential and demonstrated a commitment to our pledge class and to Theta Xi. He was a Brother in every way and it was a honor to be his friend and brother. YITB Seward BD 350

I too cherished the friendship I had with Craig. He was my Brother, roommate, golf partner, stock advisor and friend for 50 + yrs. He battled his cancer for years.....always keeping a positive attitude. Craig's life was a wonderful example of how it should be done. I will miss him terribly.
