“ May 28, 2013 Michele & Julie, I don,t think you will remember me, but I saw you two grow up over the years. We went to many hockey games together, had lots of fun. I loved your mom & dad, they were great people. Both of them did so much for Curie, always the kids first. You both are in my prayers. We had wonderful times. Bud Hildebrand

“ May 29, 2013 Dan was a gentle soul always willing to help but also loved a good practical joke. First and always a teacher. It is because of him many of us could find this page and type a message. Tech #1 Friend #1 golfer #3 but loved to see others do well,. Dan enjoyed the success of others, we should all learn find that joy. he will be missed

“ As Sue & I sit here looking out the windows of our home in Michigan it seems only fitting that it is a rainy & gloomy day as it truly reflects what we feel in our souls after losing such a dear friend as Dan. How someone can so briefly enter our lives, yet have such a powerful impact on us is unexplainable. When we were on the ballfield Dan was the epitome of a team player, not only with his all out effort and skill, but even more so by giving us encouragement to do well ourselves. No matter how we performed, to a man he made us feel better about ourselves with only a few words. His (and to no lesser extent yours' Mary Jo) kindness and generosity extended far beyond our softball field though. We cherish the framed picture you two so thoughtfully gifted to all of us on the team and we hold close the memories of the great times we shared together. We cannot look at the picture now without feeling a touch of sadness, which we know Dan would not have been happy about. He lived his life to the fullest in every aspect and would want us to do the same. Mary Jo, you and the rest of Dan's family have our sincerest and deepest sympathy for your tremendous loss. We hope that the acknowledgment of Dan's positive impact on so many people brings you some measure of comfort in this time of grief.

“ Although we only met you and Dan just a few short months ago, we thoroughly enjoyed our time together and consider you friends. We were so looking forward to the 2014 season, not only softball but more boccee, putt-putt, meals and just togetherness. Bob had said so many times how much he liked, enjoyed and respected Dan. He is just beside himself. Our deepest sympathies to you as our hearts ache for you and Dan.

“ When we said our goodbyes last March, it was pleasantries, knowing January would come. Here we are doing it again, but no more Januarys. I'm shocked and feel cheated. OMG! Our hearts go to the family. Team mates forever will remember his first, last, best, and worst season. Dan will be missed.

“ Dan was a significant member of our “CJ's” softball team on Marco Island. Just being around Dan made us better players, better sportsmen and better people. His influence was quite but powerful. As we pass through life we meet many people but only a very few “touch” our lives in meaningful ways. Dan, for me at least, was one of those people. I am very fortunate to have known Dan. His memory will be a part of my life for as long as I live.

“ Mary Jo,
You have our deepest sympathy. I was so impressed with Dan and his athletic ability. He was such an asset to our team. He could hit that ball further than anyone on the team. May you find comfort in your family, friends and God.
