“ Hello. I just found out about Daryls passing. Im so sorry for your loss. I worked with Daryl about 50 years ago at Draper and Kramer in downtown Chicago. I was also a bridesmaid at her and Wagdi wedding. She was a wonderful friend at the time. I remember when she was just dating Wagdi. I think she followed her dad in his insurance business. She had wonderful parents. My name is Debra Szewczyk Jones. Yes I married a man named Jones in 1984. We lived in Des Plaines for 28 years then moved to Cape Coral Florida in 2015. Something told me to look her up and her obituary popped up. So saddened that we didn't keep in touch. My number is 847 373 8367 and email is debsphotog@yahoo.com. if Wagdi would like to get in touch. God bless her and RIP.

“Wagdi, I just learned the news of Daryl's passing and am so saddened to hear about your loss. Daryl was such an upbeat, caring person, and I always enjoyed her warmth and kindness. She sent the nicest card and poem to me after my dad passed, and I still keep it in my desk as a reminder when I'm feeling sad.

It reads as follows:

Think of-

Stepping on shore, and finding it Heaven!

Of taking hold of a hand, and finding it God's hand.

Of breathing new air, and finding it celestial air.

Of feeling invigorated, and finding it immortality.

Of passing from storm to tempest to an unbroken calm.

Of waking up, and finding it Home.

Please know I'm thinking of you and will keep you in my prayers. I hope these words will give you the calm that Daryl gave to me when she first shared them at a very sad time in my life. I pray you're doing well. Blessings. Dave & Tara McGraw

“ My heart goes out to you Wagdi and your family! I was shocked to hear our beloved Daryl has passed. I can only now treasure the memories of the fun times we had camping, dinners, bridal showers, and much more. I will miss her posts on FB, but I will miss her overall, she is so sweet and thoughtful, a kind heart that touches everyones soul except now I have a broken 💔

“ Dear Wagdi,
I have such wonderful memories of you and Daryl that started in 1988 when our driveways met each other. You were amazing neighbors from the start. There were so many great times on Essington, and I'm so grateful to you both for being friends that became family. Remember breakfast at Wags with my parents? We chuckled at that for years. We loved the many New Years Eve's together and so many block parties. But most of all I treasured your support and love when Rick passed away. Rick and Daryl will be neighbors at Shalom cemetery now.
Wagdi, my heart goes out to you. May her memory be a blessing to you and all her knew her.
