“ Many happy memories of Dawn. Ultimate Trivial Pursuit partner. Great recipes like London Broil and pineapple upside down cake. Well that's one of many great moms in our neighborhood and as our kids were growing up together. She will be sorely missed.

“ I worked with Dawn at Unicare and have many wonderful memories of our times together there. Besides our regular daily work I remember the annual Christmas parties at several Chicago museums, decorating the office for Halloween, one year Dawn came dressed as Jesse from Toy Story. And attending some of the plays that Darci was in with the rest of the Unicare gang, So many fun memories. My deepest sympathies go out to Don, Darci and the rest of the family. Another bright star is shining down on all of us.

“ I will always remember Dawn as the smiling, loving, caring person who responded to my greeting of "how are you today?" with "peachy swell". She was just such a lovely person at all times. Even after she started declining she kept responding with "peachy swell". There was never any change that she would admit to, always very positive. I loved her for that, and could feel her love in return. She will be missed.

“ My deepest sympathy for Don, Darci and family. I will miss my dear friend Dawn. Her struggle was long and hard before she was called home. She will forever be a big part of my life. Back in '84 when she still a nursing student and at Alexian Bros. Hospital, her stubbornness got her in a 'wee' bit of trouble. I was giving birth to my youngest son by c-section and she snuck in the operating room to give me support. Right after he was born the head nurse found her there and immediately kicked her out. Well, do you think that stopped her from sneaking upstairs into my room to see how I was doing and to hold my son. Once again, one of the floor nurses walked in, ask her if she was suppose to be on this floor (which of course Dawn wouldn't lie and said NO).....and once again promptly got kicked out and a report filed against her. That's Dawn. That's a true friend. And that's why I love her and will always have this special memorie of the wonderful, thoughtful and fiercely loyal friend that came into my life and always will remain a part of my life. Rest easy now Ms Stadler

“ Smart, quick witted, intelligent, funny, a story teller, full of love for Don, Darci, Luke, Audrey, Brian and all the rest of her family AND their friends. Accepting, gave good advice, supportive, loved to laugh and would share a cry with you also. Just so full of life. Have missed her for a while and will continue to miss my friend, Dawn, forevermore. Sweet, fun memories abound. Sending deepest condolences to all of you.

“ *Fond memories of Dawn. I only knew her through work, but I remember lots of laughs.
Thinking of her family now. May she be at peace forever.*

“ Dawn's cheerful optimism was infectious. No matter what else was going on around her, or even as she began to decline, she refused pessimism. She was always "Peachy swell." That is how I will remember her..that and her very generous nature, contributing her time and talent to every organization she was part of. May she know eternal Peace and Joy, and be forever "Peachy-swell!"

“ *"It well may be
That we will never meet again
In this lifetime
So let me say before we part
So much of me
Is made of what I learned from you
You'll be with me
Like a handprint on my heart
And now whatever way our stories end
I know you have re-written mine
By being my friend...
Like a ship blown from its mooring
By a wind off the sea
Like a seed dropped by a skybird
In a distant wood
Who can say if I've been changed for the better?
But because I knew you.....I have been changed for good."*

“ I will remember my friend Dawn as she was before her frontotemporal dementia diagnosis... Smart and passionate..welcoming...steadfast...in love and loved by Don and Darci.. family and friends.

One wonders why bad things happen to good people and there is no answer. I only know that Dawn met her challenge with strength and I will be forever in "awe" of her. I am thankful her struggle is over and she is at peace.

My love and heartfelt sympathy to Don, Darci and family.

P.S. Whenever we got together I knew I was in for a "picture viewing" session of her much loved grandchildren - we would joke about it - and then get down to the business of total admiration of them!!! A wonderfully proud Grandma!
