

Mrs. Deborah L. Gantner of Streamwood

September 2, 1956 - March 24, 2023

Deborah L. Gantner, 66, of Streamwood, Illinois.

Loving wife of Joseph Gantner and devoted mother of Nicole Gantner, who never left her side during her battle. She is survived by 3 sisters, Shirley McConathy, Jeniffer Zandi, Jody Florez and 1 brother the late Leroy McConathy, 38 Niece's and Nephews, life long friend Lorena, Taylor and Lily. ♡ Debi was a free spirit who had the passion for music. She was a singer songwriter, with the voice of an angel. She was an inspiration to many. She put up a fierce fight, one like we've never seen before. Love you Forever and Always,,,,Rest Now.

“ I never wanted to have to write this. My mom will forever be my favorite person. She was selfless, compassionate, funny, nurturing, smart , brave , stronger than anyone I know . A true hero. She went through so much in her life and always had a smile on her face and warmth in her heart. The best mother you could ask for. Loved animals and music. I will forever miss her. Our lives will never be the same. I'll wait each and every day until I get to see her again. She was my heart and soul. Very proud to have had her as my mom and one of my best friends. She will forever be missed and loved by all of her family.

“ Debi, one day we will all meet up with you again. I am so happy we were able to reconnect on Facebook after all these years. Toy gave us the opportunity to share the many memories we share. I will always think about all the memories of us as kids and the fun we used to have. They were definitely special times. You know the old saying, “Only the good die young. “ and that can certainly be about you.

“ Beautiful sister, you will live on in our hearts forever and always. Knowing you're no longer in pain, singing and dancing in heaven eases the sorrow. I will always miss and love you forever.
