“ My deepest sympathy for the family of Diana Cloninger. She was such a loving wife, mother, aunt, and friend. She was such and intelligent lady with a passion for caring for others. She will truly be missed. I am so very sorry that I could not be there for the visitation or funeral due to my recent back surgery. What I would have told you, had I been present is that I am praying that she is in heaven in the arms of Jesus. And also I am praying for each and every family member and all of those who loved her, that God would lift you up and strengthen you in the knowledge that she is with Jesus. God bless you all.

“ Where to start, I have nothing but respect and so many wonderful memories. This lady taught to always be strong and always look put together no matter the circumstances. One memory that comes to mind is the weekend we took Cesar downtown for the very first time, boy we had a great time, I can still taste the wine and listen to the music by the pier and I can hear her laughing. Señora Diana gracias por todo.

“ Diana we have so many memories I don't know which to share. How about the weekend you, Linda and I went to my the “beach house” in Wauconda? We had a great night of dancing and even a couple or mire drinks. When we came back to the beach house, you shared with Linda and I that laughter was very healing. You had gone to a yoga class I think and they suggested you just start laughing. For no reason. Just laugh. Well Linda snd I looked at each other like just maybe you had a little to much wine. But what the heck. We all sat on the bedroom floor and started to laugh. A bit forced at first but by the time we were done we were laughing so hard and for “real” my sides hurt! I will never forget that day my dear friend. I am so grateful for your friendship.
