“ Mima today is YOUR day. Shine bright for us. Rest in peace my beautiful sunshine of my life ✨☀️ I'm going to keep your love alive by reflecting the love you've given me to my loved ones. I want them to feel how special and secure you could be with just being genuine and caring. You truly are the most amazing and loving beautiful person I had the honor of calling my "Mima", my sunshine, my world, my best friend. I wish one day I can be like you. You're perfect Mima. I love you so much I wish I could do or give anything to bring you back to me but you're in Gods arms now. Relax now Mima, dance for me till we meet again. You are at peace and I will forever love you with all my heart and all my soul. 🙏☀️✨🌸 you're my world Mima, my queen, my love of my life. 1940-2015

“ Aunt Dina

I will never forget your passion for my family. Your incredible ability to tempt my taste buds, I miss your weekend dinners. You showed me a wonderful time during the holidays especially the way you entertained us all at Christmas. I will never forget you and always love you. I will always keep the life lessons close that you have taught me.

May the peace that pasted between us shine bright as we will meet again.

*Love always,
your nephew

“ My deepest sympathy to the entire Shapiama family on their dear loss of Dina. I knew Dina in H.S as I was a close friend to Debbie and Tirza and the guys. She was the rock of the family, worked incredibly hard to give her children a life better than hers. She was so devoted to her kids and supported the extended family as the years went on. One thing I always remembered about her was how she loved to watch us dance. Debbie and I would make dance routines and every now and then perform them for her in her living room at the small 2 bedroom apartment that housed the Shapiama household and at that time 2 grandchildren (Mikey and Mercedes). She was always so appreciative and I loved to see how much the kids appreciated all her hard work with the gifts they would shower her with during Christmas time. I'm happy to know that she is resting peacefully and had such the blessing of a big family embracing her during her journey towards the end of this thing we call life. The one thing I know is that her life continues within her kids and grandchildren. It is evident that she has touched so many lives and will be greatly missed. My heart aches for the family and so wish I was closer to Illinois to be able to embrace them during the sorrow that they are experiencing. Although time has passed and distance keeps us apart.....her memories are kept and I at least got to have met and known a wonderful spirited person like her.

“ Where can I begin to say something about a Mother that meant so much to me and her kids, a friend to everyone, a loving wife to her husband, a terrific Grandmother to her grandkids, most amazing Tia Dina to her family in Peru... You were such a strong, intelligent, and caring woman. Thank you for being my inspiration in life, a shoulder to lean on when I needed, a teacher to guide me in the right direction. Thank you for never giving up on me when I needed you the most. Thank you for singing to me like you always did and teaching me your Peruvian style of dancing that I could never get as good as you. Because of having such a wonderful Mother like you that never said never and didn't quit or give up on any of life's obstacles that came her way. Raising 5 children on her own and no matter what still made sure we all had what we needed. Every occasion that came you made sure that we were all taken care of no matter what. Because of you I am where I am today. You made me the better person and father I am today. I look at what you did and know that nothing would ever compare. If you can do it I can do it. It's because of you that I accomplished everything. And now it will be tough without you. But I will always have you around me every time I'm with my family and my brother's and sister's who will all be missing you so much. Te Quiero Mucho Mi Mamita Linda Y Te Voy a Extranar Mucho. I love you so very much and going to miss you with all my heart. Please look down on me and my family and kids once in awhile. This isn't goodbye it's like you used to always say "See You Later Alligator" till we meet again.

Always Yours
Davisito

“ *Mom, Mima...you were sick and tired and we all knew,
that God would soon come to take you.
You fought so hard, so very long,
but through the pain, you stayed so strong.*

*We all knew there would come a day,
when God would come to carry you away.
It doesn't make it easier to say goodbye,
and I TRIED so hard not to cry.*

*We can't help but feel defeated,
or even maybe a little cheated.
But how very selfish it would be,
to hope and pray you could stay .*

*So as you laid there in so much pain
I had to tell you "It's ok to go".
Say "Hi" to loved ones waiting on the other side.(My brother Bill my

I know some day we'll meet again so it's not good bye, it's see you again!
Til we meet again MOM, love you

“ Mom, where do I start? I came into your family over 20 years ago. I wasn't the easiest person to like or know at that time. We had to feel each other out for a while. You were the over protected mom of your son Jese and wanted to make sure I wasn't going to hurt him. But after a while you opened your heart, your mind and your arms to me. You taught me how to make peruvian food so that I could make it for jese. I used to love being in the kitchen with you laughing, talking and just enjoying each others company. I came into your family not knowing what love was really about or even how to love someone as you loved everyone. You see mom, you were more than a mother in-law to me, you became my mother ! I never really knew or felt a mother's love before I felt yours. You loved me for who I was and whom I was becoming with your love. You not only taught me how to do things in the kitchen, but you taught me how to love with all my heart just as you did. I really believe that you and I are a lot alike, why not ! I had a great teacher and role model within you. I am who I have become today with your guidance and love over the years. I have so many memories of us together in and out of the kitchen. I know you are no longer in pain and that heaven has gained a very rare angel above. You see it just hurts so bad that you are gone and that we can't talk anymore like we used to. I want to thank you for everything that you have shown me over the years and for always being by my side regardless if it was about your son. You at first were a protective mother over him but over the years you became a protective mother over me with him. I know jese used to get mad and say "I can't believe my mom loves you more." But that's not true! You loved all your children and family regardless if you gave birth to them or not. I want to thank you for giving me jese all those years ago. I want to thank you for showing me how to love with all my heart !! But most of all mom I want to thank you for just being you!! DINA SHAPIAMA !!!! There will never be anyone like you in my life. Because of you I not only have my husband and kids, but I have a real family that I love and loves me as you did. I'm gonna miss you !!!! Please look over us as you have always done. I know you will be there when I feel a soft touch or a soft blowing wind. I know you will have your way of saying "I'm here, it's going to be ok." We love you so much mom always and forever with all our hearts.
