“ We moved on to Fullerton Rd the summer before 5th grade. The Ruf boys were 2 of our first friends there. Don was always one of the nicest kids I knew there, and the family was great too. God bless him and his family and may he rest in peace.

“ I was sitting in a classroom at Glenside Middle School looking out the window, waiting for class to end so I could go out and join my new friends the Ruf brothers, and play ice hockey on the pond in front of their house on Fullerton Ave. They introduced me to the sport. With Donny in goal and John skating around next to me, it will always be a great childhood memory. Donny was always there to critique and help me improve my goal scoring skills, he was like a big brother to me. So many great memories of hanging out with him, he was always the one to make us all laugh. RIP my friend. Gone but never forgotten.
