“ Hilda and Christian, you raised a great family and Emanuel was one of the most caring, thoughtful and polite people let alone a teenager. With Abraham always by his side they became regulars at our house and friends to our entire family. Words cannot do him enough justice, we will miss him walking in and saying hello, looking out for his friends, sitting down to dinner with us.

In his 14 years he touched everyone he came in contact with and left us all with memories that we will never let go of. He was special!! I remember when our son Matthew lost his AirPods while out riding his bike. Emanuel and Abraham being the great boys they are went out the next morning and retraced their steps and found them for him. That's just one story we have many, many more to share.

If this world was filled with Emanuel's it truly would be a greater place! We are truly sorry for your loss.

We are here for your family,
