“ Dear Uncle Eddie,
Thanks for all the memories, knowledge, and time together we shared throughout the years.

Whether it was going to Mears or Hoffman Estates, I just loved visiting my Aunt and Uncle's house and he was a big part of it.

The knowledge. This guy knew a little about everything. Well hey, I knew a lot about nothing, so he had to be right. Right? 🤖♂

I mean who else can pull off driving their own personal Ryder truck, in Chicagoland traffic. Respect 👊

West Virginia born, but Windy City cool and knew what to do with an IPASS. 🚀

A successful independent entrepreneur and father, who did it his way. 😎 That's how I'll remember him.

You will be missed.
