“ My deepest condolences to you and your family during this difficult time. I had the privilege of working with Eric for many years at Takeda. Eric was always a great colleague to have on a team and approached problems in a methodical and calm way that we all appreciated. Outside of team setting, Eric was personable and truly cared about his fellow colleagues. We talked many times around the Takeda office and at investigator meetings – such a great man that will be truly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Eric while employed at Takeda. We worked together as colleagues and had lunch as friends. He loved sports and always loved to laugh. He was intelligent and practical and I really enjoyed partnering with him on projects.

He will be miss by everyone who had the pleasure of working with him. He will also be missed by those of us who got a chance to share part of our lives with him. Roy Allen

“ I will truly miss Eric. We have known each other for over 14 years, since he joined Takeda. Eric and I would meet for lunch several times each week, and would discuss sports, family, movies, politics, etc. Mostly, we talked about our kids sporting events, and how much we enjoyed the experiences. He and I had much in common, including a great family.

“ My sincere condolences to Maribel, Dylan, Kelsey and Nick. I had the pleasure to work with Eric for the past fourteen years. I sat next to him for many years. He was one of the most humble and genuine person I came across at work. He was so proud of his family and loved sharing many funny stories. Thanks for sharing such a wonderful person with us at Takeda. My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family.

“ I can't think of anyone with whom I have worked over the years who was so universally well-liked and respected as Eric was. He was a genuinely nice and caring guy and had a smile that was infectious. My favorite memory of him was a time when we ran into each other at a Bob Dylan concert four years ago or so. Since then, every time we would see each other we would talk about music, concerts we had recently seen, or concerts we wanted to see. My sincere condolences to the Goll family and other friends. He will be so greatly missed.

“ Eric was a great friend, colleague, and tennis partner. As much as he loved sports, it was obvious to anyone who knew him that he loved his family more than anything. Whether at lunch or after tennis, he often shared stories about each of his kids and the Goll family adventures with a special kind of pride and happiness. Always a fun person to be around, I know he will be greatly missed by family and friends.
My thoughts, prayers, and deepest condolences go out to his wonderful family.

“ Eric has been a dear friend to me while working at Takeda. I have had the honor and privilege to spend my lunch time with him and really get to know how much of a caring, devoted Husband and Father he was. He understood the value of hard work on his job as well as at home. People that came in contact with him really enjoyed the presence of his company as well as the deep knowledge he had to share about our industry, academia, sports, and current events.

Eric will be sorely missed, and my deep and sincere condolences go out to the Goll family. The entire family is in my prayers, and this will be a continual ritual to ensure that the Lord grants comfort, grace and peace to all.

Warmest wishes,

Mr. Kerrin Young
