“ Ms. Radovancev was such a genuinely kind and generous woman, and loving mother. When visiting family in Spokane, I would often drive by the home where she once lived, thinking I might see her again, but knowing it had been many years since I last met her, this was unlikely. I am saddened to see that she has passed. Some people we meet in life will always be remembered. My sincere condolences to Marina. Z.

“ Dearest Tia Estela, I ask myself if I am here to say goodbye. I just don't know how to do that. I could talk about all the things you taught me, but I would need a scroll! I could tell everyone that you made me get on that elephant at the circus and that you introduced me to greyhound betting and that you made me climb up Mount Rainer, but instead I will share what I have learned from you leaving us . . .and that is that "life is way too short" and we don't say "I Love You" enough and that in the end "Family is Family". I can only imagine you smiling down on us . . .

“ I was fortunate enough to be able to spend a few days with Estela in February. She was bright, kind, generous and gracious. She gave both wonderful hugs, and insightful conversation. She was an amazing woman who raised a genuinely exceptional daughter, and she will be missed. I will never forget renting movies with her while Marina was picking up the boys. Estela and I were both fast asleep in front of the t.v. when Marina returned, having made it through none of the movies.

“ Those special memories of you will always bring a smile if only I could have you back for just a little while Then we could sit and talk again just like we used to do you always meant so very much and always will do too. The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain but you're forever in my heart until we meet again. Love you Mom Estela..

“ I had spent the week end by my Tia Estella's house for the millionth time and Sunday morning she took me out for breakfast, we came back and had lunch with my grandmother , her mom and spent the afternoon relaxing with her big dog Alfi , at 4pm she says to me "get dressed we are going to the Candle Light Playhouse to see a play" The Candle Light Playhouse use to be on Harlem ave near 59th st. We had dinner and went to see The Man of La Mancha. I was mesmerized!!!! It was my first musical play ever , in fact it was my first play ever I was just 13 years old. It was as if another world had opened up right before my eyes. She showed me that there was a lot to see in the world and it's there for the taking. And she always said to me "kiddo, life has so much to offer you, you got to go to school, you got to go to college" she said this to me sooo much that I did go to college and she was so right, the world does have so much to offer. She let me spend many weekends at her home, before and after Marina was born. These visits were so wonderful to me. It was sooo peaceful there and I felt so relaxed and so happy to be there. I looked forward to these weekends, I loved the fact that she never raised her voice, she always spoke softly and I always will remember her nervous little laugh. It's as if she knew I needed those weekends at her peaceful home. It's as if she knew I needed a place to get away too. It' as if she knew my soul needed peace. And her home gave me just that. She believed I could go to college , she believed I could become anything I wanted to be. She believed in me soo much that when I graduated from Paramedic School and then Nursing school she said to me " I told you kiddo that you could do it." She was very proud indeed. Thank You for being my refuge, Thank you for always telling me I was smart enough to go to college, so much so that I believed it and actually did it, but most of all, Thank You for allowing your home to be that wonderful peaceful, happy sanctuary that help me cope with life when I needed it the most....

*Rest now Tia Estella your work here on earth is done.
Heaven awaits with arms wide open!*
