“ Felix Rivituso's long life was filled with a large loving family and many good times with heartfelt laughter.

His proudness came from his garden growing tomatoes, basil, peppers, cucumbers and anything else he could grow that hopefully the squirrels wouldn't eat before he could get ahold of them. Oh if he Could of had a BB gun to scare away the squirrels, but for the neighbors sake he was kept unarmed.

He was full of exciting detailed stories from traveling to meeting celebrities to winning card games. He was spunky and witty in his beginning, middle and end of his life, which made him fun and interesting to be in his presence.

He was a devote Catholic and attended mass everyday. He loved his home cooked meals, laughter in his home and peace in his heart.

He was a hard worker at TWA for many years that allowed him to travel to many far off places and sometimes at a moments notice. He has met and served flights with Michael Jackson, Sammy Davis Jr, and even the Pope. He loved attending TWA retired workers gatherings which often included family and great food.

He was cared for by his children and grandchildren. He outlived many loving friends and family members and kept them in his thoughts, conversations and prayers everyday. He was so full of life that his departure was unexpected even at the age of 85. I know dancing with Rita to Spanish Eyes was something he was looking forward to doing once again when he finally went to his forever home.

His shoes his danced many steps, his voice sang many songs, his heart loved many people and his hands cooked some great meals. He did things his way and he was respected by many.

Felix had passion, faith, humor, love and will be greatly missed by many.

“ This picture of my Dad was taken just three short months ago, we were at one of many TWA Retire luncheons that he loved to go to. He worked for TWA for 40 years. This day we were at White Fence Farm (famous for their chicken) which was one of my Dad's favorites. My Aunt Sheila decided to come and surprise him! You can tell by his smile, how happy he was that day!

My deepest sympathy to the Rivituso Family in the loss of a Father who exemplified kindness and was a gentle man. Knowing Phil for over 40 years at TWA and working with and for him was a pleasure, he was a true friend and will be missed. He now is at peace and with Rita Jo.

*We offer our sincere condolences to the Rivituso family, a part of all off us gone for now, the many memories retained, so to meet once again if you keep the Faith. Starting in 1952 with TWA, at Air Freight as a Cargo Agent, working with "Rivits" at times side by side, we could go on an on with stories. Say hello to everyone Phil, miss ya for now, see you later. Tom Sharkey
P.S. The TWA Family who remember, with a smile on their face, such as that final picture of him, "Dr. No", who could ever forget. GOD Bless*
