“ *My memories of Frank will always include the way he cared for our students, the honest conversations we had in the hall, and the twinkle in his eye no matter what. He spoke of so many different things with such wisdom and humor. “ To all of Frank’s family; our deepest and most sincere sympathies go out to you. We have known Frank for as long as Paul and Flavia have known each other and will always remember him for his infectious laugh his quick wit and engaging demeanor. Above all else we will remember him for the deep love he felt for his family and the great pride he had for all of his children and grandchildren. While his loss will be felt by all who knew him so to will he be remembered. Know that you are not alone in this time of grief. With Love, The Cittadino Family

“ Frank was called Grandpa by many students at Glenbard North. He established rapport with the wide range of kids that attend here and dispensed common sense advice. He certainly did not hesitate to tell a student to pull his pants up and dress for success! His smile and attitude were always something to look forward to and admire. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. He will be missed.
