“ I had the privilege of cutting Frank's hair for years...I always knew my day would start off great when Frank walked in! He was always smiling and had a great contagious laugh. I will remember how foundly he always spoke about his wife, kids and grandchildren...he loved you all so much! I will forever remember Frank coming in wearing one of his hats and cute sweaters...what a sweet sweet man! May you always have such found memories of him...I know I do! May God bless you all!!!

“ My heart goes out to the Lara Family at this troubling time. I cant help but smile at one of my favorite Uncles. I'll always remember his music and his jokes. Oh yes the rolling fingers. From being a little boy to just recently, uncle Frank always treated me the same. A smile and a laugh. We will miss you. Please tell my Dad and uncle Butch We said Hi and we Love you all. And may all of you share a horn and the Timbala together!
You will always be in our hearts!
Your Nephew
