“ One of my favorite memories of Uncle Fred is when Emma and I were left at your home while the rest of the family traveled. Fred took us to some local amusement area where we played games, rode the kiddy rides and bought one of those big flat swirl lollipops. It might just as well have been Disneyland. I had so much fun and Uncle Fred made me feel so special ... especially when I was probably missing my family the most. Little did he know he was creating memories that would last me a lifetime. I think this sums up the measure of his person ... so humble he hardly understood the impact his loving kindness had on others. I hope he gets to enjoy that knowledge now as he sits with the God he loved so deeply.
