“ I was so sad to see this. I don't know if your family would remember me but I know you do. I was the little girl, Kelli next door. I called you Mrs Grady not knowing to separate your last name from your husbands first name as a little girl. Mrs Grady, you were always a light of joy. You were always so kind and attentive and laughed at my little antics. You always had candy for me. Always dressed so beautifully and for some reason I'm completely overcome by grief learning of your passing from 7 years ago. Rest in sweet peace Ginny Field. You were loved by so many. ❤️
