“ How can I ever forget summers in Stevensville, Michigan, at the DeBartolo Resort. The three of us, you, Cousin John Bruno and me, all the same age, enjoying the food, fun and beach activities. I remember sitting with you next to the nickel slot machine drinking our Orange Crush watching the older ladies trying to win and when they gave up we put in our nickels (our tip for wiping dishes after dinner) and "voila" we won...everytime. Then off to the ice cream shop on Glenlord Road, flashlights in hand. Ah, yes, Geri, we were fun friends in addition to being cousins. You will always be fondly remembered. Cousin, Ginny Prihoda
