“ I met Gerry years ago at Foster Beauty Shop in Chicago. My mother was a client of hers and Gerry started cutting my hair when I was in high school. She remained my hairdresser until I moved out of state many years later in 2008. I wouldn't let anyone else touch my hair. But she was so much more than my hairdresser. She was a dear friend, and I loved her. She brought so much joy to my family's lives over the years, sharing her love of fashion, flowers and gardening, animals, Chicago sports, and so much more. She was a beautiful woman, inside and out. But what I'll always cherish is her kind and caring spirit. I feel so blessed to have had the honor of knowing her. She will be greatly missed, but remembered fondly. May she Rest In Peace.

Gerry cut my hair, she cut both my daughters hair and also my sons. I played tennis with her after I retired. I was amazed at all her accomplishments. She did the climbing wall at an advanced age. She was fun to be with and I will miss her Rest in peace. Paula
