“ I admire Gianna so much for her beautiful glowing soul full of boundless LOVE. I'm grateful for every moment I ever had the honor to spend with her. She changed my life many times over. She was a makeover magician. I hope her transition back to her Heavenly Father brought her as much peace and joy and comfort that she herself gave so freely to others. She was always raving about her beautiful family. To her beloved husband, children, and Stella girl:

May your journey through Grief be full of the Light her Love always shines on you.

I celebrate her Life in spirit with you. She is by far one of my favorite humans and I'm deeply regretting not seeing her more while she was still with us. There would never be enough time spent in her presence, that's what I know for sure. I'm sending my Love to help heal your hurting hearts.

My deepest condolences to all those grieving the loss of this extraordinarily beautiful soul, our friend Gianna.

I'm attaching a photo she actually took of me after spending most a day hand painting my hair over a decade ago at Compagnia de Belleza" in Old Town. She is such an inspiration and I love her dearly always.
