“ On behalf of all of the volunteers who drove Gloria to her dialysis appointments, Escorted Transportation Service Northwest wanted to let you know how very sorry that we were to hear about her passing. She always was so proud and concerned about all members of her family and took such great pride in how she looked when going to her appointments. We all enjoyed our conversations and many developed strong relationships with her. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all members of her family. May she be a guardian angel looking down on all those that she loved so much.

“ I want to express my sincere and deepest sympathy to all in regards to Aunt Gloria's passing. She has been one of the most strongest people I know. Her love and care for her family makes her a true example of what a mother and grandmother is for her children. I feel very blessed to have had her in my life. I know she will be very happy to be with her beloved Vito in Heaven. May you rest in peace and we will always miss you. Love Mary Sue and Maile
