“Gloria will be missed greatly. She was the people. To know her was an honor and a privilege. I was proud to call her a friend.

“Sending condolences to all the Phee family.
We have many wonderful memories of Gloria but my favorite is the first time we actually met as parents of Pat and Dave.
She used to come through my line when I worked at Dominic's. One day she paid by check and I noticed her last name was Phee so I asked her if she had a son named Pat. She answered very defensively “why? It was like what did he do now?? I said “he just so happens to be my sons best friend”. Then she wanted to know my sons name and when I told her she was surprised because I had waited on her so often and we didn't know our sons were such good friends. We had a lot of laughs over it through the years.
